

Community Service Application

A multilingual sample document with natural, mixed-language content.

About the application

The City Service Centre accepts applications from residents who may prefer to use different languages. Most forms are completed in English, but names, addresses, notes, and supporting information are often written in the applicant's preferred language. This page is an example of the kind of document that a multilingual OCR system may receive in practice.

Applicant information

The applicant has also attached a copy of the previous certificate and a recent address proof. Please keep the reference number and dates unchanged when extracting the text.

Additional Information

Mixed-language notes

કૃપા કરીને અરજદારના નામ અને સરનામાની પ્રમાણે જ રાખવી.

आवेदक ने बताया कि उसका मोबाइल नंबर पछिले महीने बदल गया है। नई संपर्क जानकारी आवेदन रिकॉर्ड में अपडेट की जानी चाहिए.

இந்த விண்ணப்பம் அலுவலக சரிபார்ப்பிற்காக அனுப்பப்பட்டது. அசல் ஆவணங்கள் கிடைத்த பிறகு இறுதி மாபிஸ எடுக்கப்படும்.

Regional office note

The receiving officer should be able to read the extracted text without losing the original language. Names and addresses are especially important because they are frequently used for searching records. Numbers, dates, reference IDs, and punctuation should also remain intact.

Reference table

| Field     | Value                        | Language / Script  |
|-----------|------------------------------|--------------------|
| Applicant | Rahul Sharma / ██████ ██████ | English + Hindi    |
| Address   | ██████████, Gujarat          | Gujarati + English |
| Service   | Certificate Renewal          | English            |
| Status    | ██████████████████           | Gujarati           |
| Reference | CSC-2026-18472               | Latin + numbers    |

The main challenge is not simply recognizing individual characters. The system must recognize which language is being used, preserve mixed scripts, and return the information in the correct reading order.
